

Frequently Asked Questions:
COHFMA Gives Back on February 29, 2020 at Columbus Relief

THANK YOU for your interest in the Central Ohio HFMA Gives Back Program. Here are some FAQs about the upcoming community service effort.

- Is there a maximum number of volunteers for this February 29th effort?
 - For safety reasons and to assist in making the recipients not feel overwhelmed, 15 is the max number for this effort date.
 - For future efforts, the number of volunteers needed could be different.

- Is there a waitlist?
 - We are so excited about your willingness to help us! If all slots have been taken, please email us at hfma.centralohio@gmail.com and let us know.
 - We will keep a list of people interested to make sure you are the first to know about our next opportunity!

- Do you have any restrictions on non-HFMA members helping, or family members helping out?
 - Families and friends do have the opportunity to assist a HFMA members! Please sign them up with you and put their names in the Comments box.
 - Please check age requirements for this effort. The organization has posted, “You must be 16 years of age to volunteer independently. Children 15 and under must be accompanied by their legal guardian or parent.” However, for safety reasons, we highly recommend children in their teens and older is best for this effort.

- Can my young child also volunteer with me?
 - For safety reasons, we highly recommend children in their teens and up is best for this effort. Future efforts could be different.

- Why are shorter shifts not available for this effort?
 - For this effort, the time span allows for:
 - Preparation
 - Ease into the different environment
 - Service
 - Winding down
 - More so even than just physical hands to make it all happen. The time spent, for example, after cleaning is sharing your experiences and interactions. Settles the spirit...
